PA Law

Under Palestinian Authority law, the PA pays every terrorist prisoner a monthly salary. In 2018, the PA admitted to spending $134 million (502 million shekels) in salary payments to terrorists.

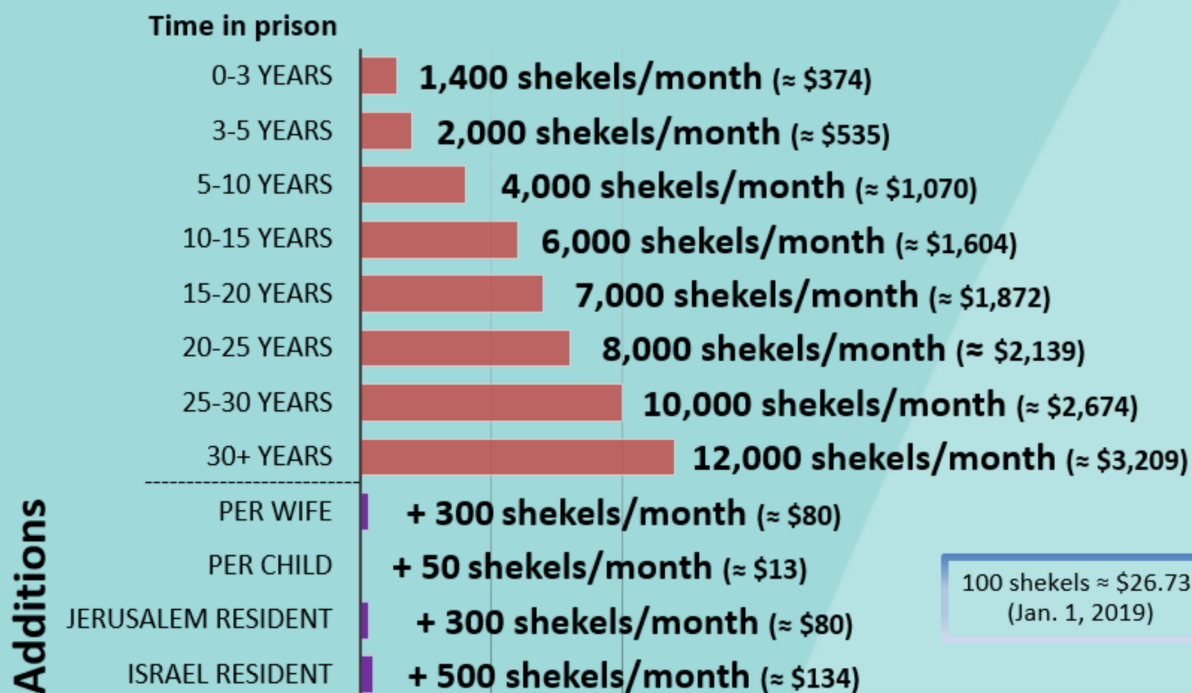

Since 2000, the PA has raised the monthly salaries a number of times. Currently, every prisoner's salary starts at 1,400 shekels/month and increases every few years, reaching as high as 12,000 shekels/month after 30 years.

The families of so-called "Martyrs" (Shahids) receive a monthly allowance at least 1,400 shekels ($374) for life.

The following chart shows the monthly salaries for prisoners in effect since January 2011.
